

FROM YOUR LITTLE BOY

By Paralee Eadie

My daddy is the strongest man,
He chases monsters away.
He's not afraid of anything!
He says God made him that way.

I know God made him very smart,
Because he knows more than my teacher.
And he's so smart sometimes he says
He even knows more than our preacher!

When I fall down and I get hurt
He gives me a big bear hug,
Then he rubs his knuckles on my head,
And we wrestle on the rug.

He's not afraid of bugs and worms,
Says they can't give you infections,
And God gave men logical minds
So they never need directions!

I let my dad play with my new car
That came with a racing track.
I know he's only pretending
That he doesn't want to give it back.

He says that God is a Father,
Loving and kind but never grim.
If He's anything like my dad,
I can hardly wait to meet Him!

DAD'S PRAYER

Lord, help me to be the man my child sees - the exact same kind of Father that
You are to me!
